

Table 5: Summary of overarching policy, systems and environmental priorities and planned action steps during the summit and reported stages of change, successes and challenges six months later by Region I

Area of Focus	Planned Action Steps	Time Frame	Stages of Change and Successes	Challenges
Colorectal cancer screening	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Educate Chief Medical Officers, Chief Executive Officers (CEOs), clinics and lab directors Educate providers on fecal immunochemical test Educate IHS administration and clinic staff on colorectal cancer screening Educate Tohono O’Odham Nation health department management on colorectal cancer screening 	1 week 4 weeks 8 weeks Ongoing	Stages of change six months post-summit: Getting ready / currently implementing activities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identified ownership and provided tribal language for education materials and PSAs on local radio stations about colorectal exams Worked with IHS to assist clients who may need colorectal cancer screening using patient navigation Created sub-committee of Tohono O’Odham Cancer Partnership to educate the population on FIT tests Stages of change six month post-summit: Not ready / currently implementing and evaluating activities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tohono O’Odham Nation Health Care has adopted the FIT test 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Time constraints and limited staff capacity Changes in health department structure at Tohono O’Odham “The Nation went to 638”
Breast cancer screening in Navajo Nation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Meet with the Breast and Cervical Cancer Prevention Program acting Director and create a road map Solicit approval from and educate CEO Train medical providers on breast cancer screening Follow-up service unit by service unit 	3-4 weeks 8-12 weeks Sep. 2016 6 months	Stage of change six months post-summit: Ready <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clarified MOU for breast cancer screening Confirmed Government Performance and Results Act standards have been met 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The CEO of the medical facility is new, which can affect whether the MOU remains or amendments or revisions will be made
Breast cancer screening for the Hopi community	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) Educate on program and program requirements Talk with the CEO and Medical Director Include clinical breast examination trainings at the November Tribal Collaborative 	1 week 4-6 weeks 6 weeks Nov. 2016	Stage of change six months post-summit: Ready <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ready to review MOU for breast cancer screening Breast surgeon spoke at the November Tribal Collaborative conference Stage of change one year post-summit: Currently maintaining and evaluating activities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The number of women enrolled in the program that received breast and cervical cancer screening [increased] Tribal leadership and community at-large have been supportive of program activities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Conflicting recommendations from various organizations regarding clinical breast examinations Limitations with CDC funding being used to screen IHS employees Educating the community and convincing them to support and enroll in the program